

Hello, my dearest Abby

August 4th - It is currently the Fourth of August and I'm going to start typing this now because I have so much on my mind that I feel the strong need to tell you. You will be receiving this on the eleventh of August at 11:11 am. You can have a whole weeks worth of my thoughts if you so choose. I want to preface this by saying that if you do not want to hear a word I have to say that you can always exit this and hit the block button if you feel I'm breaking your wishes. I would not be hurt if you felt that was the best way to get over this. If not, then feel free to read all of my thoughts. Also one more thing before I begin. If you so choose to feel free to read this intermittently because it is a lot of words and a lot to process. I have done some thinking and I have realized that I don't respect my wishes enough or myself for that matter. So I'm going to listen to my heart for once because I can't stop ignoring the way it beats for you. It is 2 in the morning at the moment and every night I am unable to stop thinking about you. Whether it's the times we shared, the way you left, or the hope I'm constantly holding out for you to come back into my life. I think what makes it worse is that I know you feel the same way about me. Like you said it's our circumstances. You're correct in everything you say and I can't fault you too hard for anything really because I don't know what it's like to be you. But anyways yeah, I know you still have feelings for me and I will never stop loving you either and so that's why I thought I would try and reach out because I'm done suppressing how I feel. I'm gonna tell you my point of view of life since July 22nd and then I am going to go to sleep for tonight. I went to bed on the night of the 22nd knowing what had happened. I just knew what was happening and what was going to happen after. My overthinking anxious brain was correct. If you don't ever understand why I'm a nervous wreck sometimes, it's things like that. Me being right about the worst case scenario. Anyways, I spent the next 3 days going to my uncles to work. I knew what was coming and was just trying to deny it by trying to take my mind off of it by doing literally anything else. But you wouldn't leave my mind. I kept going to Hardee's after work to get the hot honey chicken sandwich. I kept listening to our music. I kept dreading what was inevitable. All of it coming from us trying to do something good and doing the right thing. (Side note: if we're truly done, at least we can be done knowing we ended something that could've been horrible. I'm glad that Jeff is out of the picture no matter what). I think I should tell you about my side of the 25th. I was at my uncle's place working and decided to go out for lunch. As soon as I got to Hardee's, I saw you had messaged me about the letter and I talked to you for what could've been the last time but I can't just let you go. I instantly drove 45 minutes home and sure enough, there it was in the mailbox. I took it upstairs and read it and I felt exactly how I had the other times. Then I opened your other messages and I just had so much I wanted to say to you but I couldn't anymore. I am still struggling typing this because I feel like I am disrespecting your wishes but I need to tell you and I think most of you wants me to tell you anyways. I don't remember anything else except going to sleep early because I had to go to Indianapolis for the race the next day. It's all a blur now but I just remember being a little teary eyed before the start of the race. It was a terribly boring race. As the laps wound down you were the only thing racing thru my mind. I was just hoping you were okay even though I was hurting. Just so you know I know you never intended to hurt me. It just hurt a little worse this time because you were my partner for 12 days. I had always wished and hoped for that. A relationship with you, that is. It just felt comically cruel that it was ripped away so fast. Sometimes I just can't help but laugh the way life's obstacles are hurled at us. There's something really funny about it in a way because no matter what I'm still going to be awake and alone at 3 am in the dark thinking of you like I was half a decade ago. Oh how nothing changes at all. Nonetheless, I carried on. The next couple days were forgettable. Then came the 29th. Me and my friends were about to go urban exploring at the old Tecumseh products building in Tecumseh. About 45 minutes before we actually did I had to pee. So me and Colin walked to the nearest gas station. It just so happened to be THE gas station next to doll n burger. I got really upset when I saw it I can't lie. I wandered into the bathroom and just closed my eyes for a bit. Then I took out my phone and opened instagram. There you were, "every song I hear is yours." Another part of why I'm doing this is because I want to communicate to you how I feel and I think you want to know how I feel and you also want me to know how you feel. That's why we go back and forth on the notes lol. Anywho, I was pretty happy to know I still had a place with you even if it's just in a brief text box on social media with an expiration date. I wanted to talk to you so bad that night but I held off because again. Your wishes. I don't know if you truly wished that but I will pretty much do anything you tell me to if you haven't noticed. Anyhow, me and the boys broke the law again and I was scared to death the whole time but it's okay I'm alive. Next morning we rolled out to Cincinnati. It was on that day I knew I needed to say the things I needed to say to you. I saw the playlist you made, the text, the notes. All along the whole way. You still felt the same way about me. I very much still love you too so I copied you on my playlist I made. I firmly believe that I don't think true love can be stopped and I think that's what we have and that's why we do the things that we do. But yeah anyways, the whole time you were on my mind. I just remembered being on the Banshee roller coaster at kings island and that thing literally goes upside down 7 times and not once did I think about the roller coaster or my friends. You were all I could think of even when I'm high up in the air or upside down or whatever it may be. I kept drinking hi-c whenever I got a drink and I bought the Banshee T shirt after I rode it just to remind me of you. I just can't stop loving you in my own little quiet codependent way. After kings island, the trip just kinda blew by. My friend's always hitting me with the "you look sad" or "you okay?" card and it's like why would I open up to you about my problems when you're just going to tell me "oh Cameron, we're gonna go crazy in college." I hate when people tell me that. I hate everything about the idea of any future that doesn't involve you. I can be genuine with you. You'll listen to me. You'll tell me the right things. That's another big thing I've been missing. Just the way you talk to me calms me down no matter what. I've said it before but you are so motherly. You just know exactly what to say when something is wrong and you're so soothing to me. Nobody else is like that. Anyways, I got home and spent a whole day to myself for the first time in what feels like months and that takes us to right now at 3 in the morning on a Tuesday in August. I just feel like you're so heavily engrained into my mind and I just cannot take it anymore, so that is why you are reading this if you chose to do so, of course. That about wraps it up for what I'm going to tell you tonight. I'm going to go to bed now. I still love you so much, my Abby baby (you are still named that on instagram by the way) I hope you are sleeping well 💜

Hi my dear, it's 3 pm on the 4th still. It still rings true that I miss you the most when I'm doing things with other people. I've been in Ann Arbor all day and I can't think of anything other than you no matter what. I'm gonna take a second to reminisce on some things from this summer. It has certainly been a roller coaster but there's nobody I'd rather navigate thru these challenges with. I don't know if this is going to make sense but every time I saw you this summer it always felt too good to be true. Maybe it's because something bad happened after almost every time or maybe it's because I never thought I'd gain the courage to actually talk to you, let alone be in a relationship with you. I can't forget the way you felt. The comforting warmth you brought me, even though it was only temporary every single time. The way your hair felt in my hands. The softness of your legs. Those beautiful blue eyes. There's a decent chance that I will be thinking of you in my dying moments even if we're thru for now. You've given me so many happy memories and I do really feel like that hamster riding the unicorn around you. So even if it's done, thank you for those memories and thank you for trying and wanting to share those moments with me. It's really special to me. I'm gonna go on with my day for now but I'll be back later tonight because I like this. It feels like I'm really talking to you right now. In a way, I really am

2 minutes until midnight. I had a busy but alright day I guess. I need to stop racing. This stuff is getting to me. Anyways, I hope your day was well, I don't know how much I'll have to talk about tonight yet but anyways. Happy new year

August 5th - I think I know what I am going to talk about. How nothing on my end is changed. I still love you just as much as I always have. I still have your photo album with all 207 pictures. I still have you saved in my insta as My Abby Baby 💜 I still have you saved in my phone as Abby 💜 I know this time is different but I can't help but feel like we'll be back again. I mean why else would I be typing this. I want you. In the event that I can't have you, however. I need you to know this. I hope that you will accept love that is either equal or superior to the love I have tried to show you. I mean it all the time when I say you deserve my love. I hope you truly feel that way. If it's not me in the end, then whoever he is better treat you well or I'll come find him and set him straight haha. There are some other things I need to talk about but I am very stressed out right now and I don't want to talk about those things right now. So I'll just use this emoji 🧠 as a reminder that I need to go over some things if you so choose to read this far. I'm gonna talk about my friends some more because they make me upset. Today we had a going away party for Trenton because he's leaving on Thursday for college. Me, Joe, and gage all walked to wesco and the whole time all gage did was complain about everybody. Before I talk about that, he keeps asking me about me and you and I don't like to talk about it and I feel like I have made that clear. He just keeps pressing and giving me the worst advice ever. Like I didn't want to talk about it in the first place and I'm just going to do my own thing, not whatever awful thing you're going to tell me to do and apparently I have no balls when I tell him I'm not going to do what he tells me to do lol. But he just complained about EVERYONE on the way to the gas station to me and Joe. Like dude, everyone's gone in 3 weeks please stop it. Now I'm going to talk about Paul because he is trying to make me hate him I swear. I gave him 40 dollars for graduating. He gives me 1 dollar after I bought his stupid hat. Then in the car on the way back from Cincinnati, Joe gave me aux pretty much the whole way and I was playing heat of course. But Paul was jealous because that's how he is because he's a diva like his dad and was like "I haven't gotten to play anything yet." So I say, "you haven't asked to play anything, what do you want to hear?" He says "1900-20 by gorillaz." That song is laughably bad and everyone started clowning on him. We get to chilis and I started singing it obnoxiously just to poke fun and he kicks me in my left knee at full force. So I do it more because I'm not entertaining that and he punches me in my back and I still have a bruise there and I already have back problems so that was lovely. We sat down at chilis and he was just pouting the whole time and it actually made me so happy lol. Someday he's gonna do that over the top physical stuff to the wrong person and get his butt handed to him. But yeah it's those evil people that make me appreciate you even more because even when we're not talking, you still put my music on your note. It's so refreshing because nobody has ever cared that much. Another reason I'm typing all this. You clearly care so much and I can't ignore that even if you want me too. I just cannot let you drift away from me this time without throwing absolutely everything at the wall. I'm gonna digress on that note for now but I have more on it tomorrow. For tonight I just hope you're sleeping well. I see you've had lots of lake fun lately on your stories and so I hope you've had a lot of fun with that and it's hopefully taken your mind off things and I hope you're not getting burnt too bad :) I'm gonna try to sleep now because nothing good seems to happen after 11:11 pm anymore. Now I can only hope that in a week's time we will be talking to each other again, sorting this all out if you so choose because I'll work with you thru anything, baby. That's all I have to say for tonight honey. I love you my sweetheart and I hope you get a good nights rest 💜

I still stop the microwave at 14 seconds

Nothing has happened today yet. Just thinking of you. I hope you can feel me doing so 🧐 I keep reading your letter and I had no idea what to say then and I still don't now. I'm not sure if you actually want me to be typing this with the intention of sending it to you right now or how you will respond if at all. There's just so much uncertainty when you're not here. I have so much coming up in the next week. The day you read this will be my first day I haven't gone out and done something this month hopefully. I'm prepared to feel intense loneliness for the next week because that's when I miss you the most, around other people. I guess I should just get used to it. The loneliness that is

I remember when you asked me what theme I felt I had the least control over in my life. It's always love. It's the only thing I feel in which you can do everything right like you said I did and still have nothing go right if that makes sense. It's always love. I'm sitting in the Walmart parking lot right now.

Right where I parked when I saw you the day we first kissed. I still find comfort in you even if you're not here

August 6th - It is currently 3 am I decided that I'm going to pull an all nighter. 3 years ago today is what I once thought was the best day of my life. But now I don't know what the best day of my life is anymore. There's a lot on my mind and it's simply too much to sleep. I'm going to Grand Rapids for 2 days tomorrow so I'll just sleep on the car ride up I'll be fine. I keep looking all around me whenever I'm in public. Maybe I'll catch a glimpse of you if I try hard enough. I thought typing all of this would help things but I just miss you more. It's taking everything I have in me to not send you this right now. Even if you tell me we shouldn't talk anymore like you said previously I will understand, I will just be happier knowing I tried I guess. I'm gonna go back to your letter for a second because it made me mad when you said you weren't strong. You're still willing to go thru what you've already gone thru for me of all people. You're reading this right now. You're here. You're here baby you made it. You only push me away because you care like you said. Sure it can be frustrating but you have your own dreams and aspirations. If I'm not there for them, then so be it I can't force myself into your picture. I did all I could do and I'm proud. Yeah it's stressful, yeah it caused pain. Whatever, we learn. I feel no sorrow because I had fun and I hope you did too if this is indeed it. If not I'm right here with open arms baby. I respect whatever decision you choose for yourself, I just know what I want and what I can give you. I'll never stop trying if you let me. Maybe I'm being a bit forward because it's late but it's how I feel. I don't want my feelings to get in the way of what you need to happen but I just want my case to be heard if you're even reading this. On another note, I'm sorry I didn't have more to say today. It was busy and I'm honestly just kinda lost in terms of everything but I'm trying in my own way. I'm not actually going to bed right now but I should just say goodnight to you because I need to calm myself down lol. Just know that I love you. I love you no matter what. I wanted to say it to you so bad when you left but I couldn't and it hurt so bad so I'm gonna tell you right here right now as much as I can because I don't know if I will ever be able to do it again. I love you and I hope you're getting a great night of sleep my Abby baby 💜

Okay so that's not gonna work I need to keep typing or I'm going to fall asleep. A while back I promised you that I was going to make a list of 100 reasons that I love you. I am keeping my promise. I wish I could see your reaction to the list in real time but this will have to do. So here it is. If you ever need something to pick you up here are 100 reasons that I love you and you should be proud of every single one of them

1. Your eyes - those beautiful big blue eyes. They're the first thing I look into when I see you. It's still so unbelievable that you look at me thru them. I can't comprehend such beauty
2. You make me want to be the best version of myself - even when you're not here, I find that I push myself wanting to be the most mature and responsible person that I can be. I have people I need to show up for and in my mind you are still the most important
3. Your sense of humor - we match so well. Even now I see you liking funny reels. I can't help but laugh even if it does make me a little sad I'm not getting sent them

4. Your hair - those beautiful golden locks. I miss grabbing ahold of it but it brought me so much comfort when I could. My real favorite color :)
5. The warmth I feel whenever I'm around you - One thing I think about often is being trapped inside in the middle of snowstorm in the coldest winter with you. I don't think I'd even feel it with how warm inside your presence makes me feel
6. How much I miss you when you're gone - it's simply a privilege to have somebody that I miss this much
7. You gave me a chance - I don't know if I'll ever understand why, but I appreciate you for it
8. You support me - whether it's my sim racing, my dumb friends, or if I'm stressed you do your best to lift me up and that's something I really miss right now. Even before we REALLY knew each other. You were taking down Zoe's posters in the hallway and kept making more for me lol. You're still my First Lady no matter what
9. Your smile - it's just so contagious. I'll just stare at pictures of you smiling to feel some amount of joy sometimes
10. You make me feel handsome - I get insecure about some things sometimes but as soon as you tell me you like those things about me it all just goes away. I wish I was as good as you are at that
11. You bring me so much joy - every time I see you feels so surreal just because of how happy you make me feel
12. Your soft skin - you're so delicate, I just wish I could hold you and feel your skin and protect you
13. You're so motherly - I love to say this and I know you love to hear it. Whatever your future ends up being, there is no doubt in my mind you will make a good mother
14. You love me - I've never felt happier than when you told me you loved me at my grad party. I said it back so quick. I had been waiting forever to hear that. You make me feel loved too whenever you're around there's just no doubt you do. Even if you're not, I still feel loved even if it's from afar
15. Your music - I've discovered a lot of new songs I really like from artists I was never really fond of. You help me see things in a new light and you've put me onto artists that I actually enjoy
16. You share everything with me - you tell me about your day, your friends, what's upsetting you. You allow me to be who I need to be for you in a sense because I love hearing everything about you. You let me listen which is what I think I'm best at doing and it's so validating that you agree
17. You give me show/movie recommendations - it means a lot that you would share these things with me because they're so important to you. Plus I NEED recs so thank you for culturing me
18. You're so talented - every instrument I've heard you play, you play flawlessly. Maybe it's not what you want to hear but it's what I've heard
19. Your soft voice - it will never leave my mind, I never want it to 20. How foolish you make me feel - Like cmon I'm up at 5:30 typing up 100 reasons why I love you and I can't even call you mine right now. I've told you what a fool I am for you, you understand
21. Your kindness - You're just such a kind person and you're just such a positive force of energy to be around. The world could use so many more people like you

22. You've taught me to live more - I find myself taking more chances and going more places because taking a chance on you was the best thing I could've done and I need to fear less
23. You dance so nice - again one of my favorite things ever was dancing with you. It was everything I had ever hoped for. Making all my dreams come true
24. We wish for each other - even if we're not talking I can feel you looking at that clock as it turns to all 1's. I do the same and I hope you feel me too
25. You made a playlist about me - one of my favorite things you've ever done for me. Me and Lilly still listen 🥹
26. We call each other names - it never gets old baby ;)
27. The way you kiss me - it's unlike anything I've ever felt, another thing about you that I can't even describe
28. Your hugs - it really is one of the most intimate things a person can feel, you're so right
29. Our little inside jokes - there two funny
30. The way we hold each others hands - another form of physics touch I enjoyed a lot, though I don't think I'll ever get enough of it
31. You're honest with me - even if it hurts, you tell me how you feel and that's I quality I can only respect

Well I got a few hours of sleep and I'm now in the car on the way to Grand Rapids, WE're locked

32. Your name - it's truly my favorite name ever. I don't care how you feel about it because I love it
33. You care about my interests - you told me you wanted to watch NASCAR and you love all my music and you watched Ferris Buellar for me. Those little things I can tell you actually care about mean so much to me
34. You like my sister - she's one of the most important people to me and it just makes me happy to know y'all have a good relationship and I know she misses you (and Bella lol)
35. The way you remind me of music - it's something I've never been able to explain but people always remind me of songs. You remind me of the calmest, warmest, and sweetest songs imaginable (like a pillow of winds)
36. Our worldly and political views align very closely - this is very important to me and I'm glad we agree on what seems like everything in this aspect of things
37. You're prettier than the sky - it tries too hard and it still can't top your beauty and I have photographic evidence to prove it
38. You're my favorite person in the world - how could I not love my favorite person
39. Random things remind me of you - for example the color purple gets me thinking and reminiscing now. I never used to feel that way
40. You allow me to freely express myself - you've said it yourself, society shuts out the feelings that men have. I can be me around you. I would be comfortable crying with you and not holding my emotions back. I need a good cry sometimes

First day of doing it and I got 40! Just so you know it's not because I'm struggling to find things I love about you that's taking so long. I'm just being very meticulous because I need to make sure that I got the 100 things I love most about you and I think I started off with 40 great ones today. I'm not even gonna make it to midnight tonight because I stayed up till like 7 am lol. But I figured I'd just tell you about my day before I wind down. So me and the family went to the cosmic chili peppers baseball game in Grand Rapids for Lilly's birthday gift. We had a lot of fun but of course you were on my mind the whole time. The purple darklight

🥰 you would've looked so pretty if you were there. I was in deep thought the whole time. I hadn't even listened to it all day but for some reason mama, I'm coming home by Ozzy Osbourne was stuck in my head. So I listened to it and started to tear up a little bit towards the end which was why I typed up reason 40. Anyways, I hope you're doing okay right now and that you sleep well as always. I hope to have 60 more quality reasons for you tomorrow. I could go on forever honestly it would just take me a while to do so because we both know I'm slow 🥱 anyways I should go to bed. Each day you're closer and closer to reading this. I have to say I'm excited but also really scared. It will be okay, I just gotta keep telling myself that. Anyways, I hope you come to me in my dreams and tell me that it will be okay and I hope I've been doing the same for you. I really love you so much Abby, have a goodnight of rest, my baby 💜

August 7th - a month ago today we shared our first kiss and danced together

41. You miss me - at least I know I did something right, anyways I hope you can survive four more days
42. The way you play with your hair - only the most adorable thing I've ever seen, even if you're nervous
43. You ask me questions - it shows me you are a quick thinker (unlike me) and that you actually care
44. You're very smart - you're not gonna like this one or the next few but it's the truth and you're going to hear it
45. You're very strong - you've made it here, that counts for something. I was so upset when you said you weren't strong just because you were scared. Everyone is scared. Even if they don't show it, it doesn't mean there aren't strong people out there. You can be strong and scared both at the same time
46. You're very brave - you're brave for even reading this. We've faced varying levels of danger together and you're still here reading this
47. You're a kind person - even when others aren't kind to you, you do your best to treat them how you want to be treated
48. You like to help others - from what you've told me your profession is going to be solely based around helping people, so that says a lot about your character to me
49. You're writing an album for me? - uh yeah of course I love you
50. You said I love you first - yes of course I love you too. This was so important to me and it's something I will never forget
51. You communicate even when you can't in ways I don't know how to describe - can be as simple as a pretty sunset by a place we've hung out, it's like you're still here :)
52. Your social media presence - mainly your instagram notes. I saw one that said "I'm so happy you made it there" when I was at Kings Island and I had the biggest smile on my face and at the same time Colin said a joke and he said "Cameron, liked that one" and I didn't even know what he said 😭 it was all you
53. You're "loud" as you put it - you're really not, you're just uniquely you and I love that

54. I can almost sense you - when we were talking I could almost feel when you were about to text me. That's why some messages would be read instantly. Also, last week I was singing wild horses to myself as I was racing. I look on instagram and there it is on your note
55. The way I yearn for you - it makes me love you even more. I wouldn't be doing this if I didn't love you more than anything
56. You tell me everything - even your supposed deepest darkest secret 😭
57. You recognize that we are in this together - whenever something is wrong you just ask for me to help you feel better. You don't ask for anything more and you don't ask for me to feel sorry for you. Yes that has actually happened
58. The way you style your hair - it literally always looks good no matter what you do with it, I'm very jealous
59. The way you dress - I've never seen you in anything you don't look absolutely gorgeous in
60. Your nose - it's so so cute and I love to boop it hehe
61. Your ears - they're also very cute and look nice with literally any earrings on them
62. Your hands - my favorite hands I've ever had the privilege of holding. They're so soft and warm. I miss them
63. How cute we look together - any picture I have of us I stare at and I feel like you just complete me
64. Your relationship with Jesus - I'm so glad that you have this and I believe it's part of why you're so kind in nature. I have to say this is another thing I'm really jealous of. Lilly and I would always grow up asking mom and dad why we never go to church and they never really gave us a valid reason that I can recall. I'm just happy you have that
65. I like certain things more than I did before you - for example, ice cream. I never really used to get it and now I frequently go to spotted cow on my own time. I'm eating a ninja turtle popsicle right now
66. You don't make fun of me - everyone close to me has made fun of me at some point and time. I can't recall one time you have. Also by all means it's completely okay to poke fun I'm just talking about like people making fun of a terrible misfortune
67. Ha six seven, you write me letters - maybe I wasn't a big fan of the last one but it's still very romantic to me and may I just add that I love your handwriting
68. You always keep me guessing - I like this. This is the best stress I've ever felt. My favorite kind of fear. You're involved after all, how could it not be. No matter what way this goes, you will always be worth it
69. You hold me so nice - I miss this
70. I feel better when I have you to talk to and look forward to - this is going to sound very codependent but I haven't slept good at all since I last texted you. This week I might've gotten a combined 30 hours of sleep. Then of course during the day I just think of you. My mind was a lot more free with you I guess is what I'm trying to say
71. You're so good at singing - actually the most beautiful voice I've ever heard in my life. My favorite vocalist of all time used to be Elizabeth Frazer from the Cocteau Twins but I think it's you now. I'm very very jealous
72. I envy you - I always have, I do so much stupid stuff just in hopes of you seeing it. The talent show, majority of my insta posts, my notes, etc. I only jumped off the top of that structure on the playground because I liked you and I thought it would be funny 😭 I'm not a jealous man but I will admit to being jealous of you

73. The way you show physical affection - something I had never felt until you. You do everything so well and I'm missing feeling your touch very much
74. You give me constructive criticism - this is also very important. You tell me what I should do with my fears and how they affect me negatively and you even tell me what hairstyle looks best on me lol. I appreciate this
75. You love America - as every First Lady should, you love our country. Idk I just hear most people nowadays saying they hate America so it's just refreshing to hear it from a smart and beautiful girl for a change
76. Your glasses - they just look so so cute on you and I still get to see your pretty eyes thru them
77. Your scent - you've always smelled really good. I don't know what it is but I always smelled you whenever I would walk by in school and be like "man does she use the entire bottle of the best smelling shampoo ever?" Whenever I would see you I would smell you on me hours after. It was so much fun. I'm so sad I washed my shirts
78. Your eyelashes - with or without makeup they're very beautiful and I can't help but look at them as well whenever I'm looking into your eyes
79. Your eyebrows - they're always hiding but they're so cute whenever I do see them
80. You make any picture look better - even the pretty sunset photos with you in them, my eyes go right to you and not the sunset. You look so beautiful out in nature and it can't even compete with you

Well there's 40 more today and I think I know how I'm gonna do this. You know that teen titans episode where it's got that awesome song called "night begins to shine." I'm gonna do 40% first day, 40% second day, and save a sweet sweet 20% for tomorrowwwwww

Now I just want to talk a bit about what I'm feeling with all this. Yes I'm upset. How could anyone not be yknow. I keep having you and not having you and then I really had you and I could call you mine for 12 amazing days (according to your letter) and then you were ripped away. Of course I am upset. Not at you or with you or even anyone in particular. I'm just generally upset and it's okay. I need to tell you this. If you think we can actually get this ship steered back in the direction it needs to be going, just tell me that. I will make it happen no matter the circumstances under a few conditions. A. You're not doing it because you feel bad for me. B. We don't affect your relationship with your parents more than what has already happened. C. You truly believe in us the same way that i know I do and you think that we can do it. I'm not asking for us to get right back. I'm not even asking for you to talk to me because I wasn't supposed to even be typing this. I'm not asking for a thing. I just get the sense that you want me too. It's just something to think about if what I'm sensing is correct. I have told you before I will do everything in my power for us. Now I'm even going against your wishes so I feel as if there's no turning back for me now unless you of course tell me to not talk to you again. In that event I will stop because it has been some time and then I'll feel that's what you truly want. All you gotta do is tell me what you want to happen and I'll do it. I'll be anything for you. If you want me now and that's a realistic thing, I'm all yours. If you want me to wait till fall to talk to you again, just say the word. If you want me gone, consider it done. If you want me to wait 4 years for you, I will make it happen baby. I know that's a lot to process but it's just something for you to think over. I won't be upset if my purpose wasn't to be yours but to make you feel the love that you truly deserve. You'll always have a special place in my heart no matter what happens my Abby baby, I love you 💜

Today (or yesterday now) we came home from Grand Rapids. I got paid by my uncle but had to give the truck back and ate a good ninja turtle popsicle all while thinking of you and typing away for you of course. Nothing else happened. Today is jam packed. I'm going garage sale-ing with my dad tomorrow and then we're going to a monster truck show in fowlerville. I'm going places and I'm going to be around a lot of people so I will have a whole lot of you on my mind so I'm gonna try to type everything I think about you. Until then I'm gonna think about you some more tonight to myself, type up another paragraph storm for you just like I used to and go to bed at 3 probably. I really miss you babygirl. I'm gonna keep calling you names on the chance I never get to call you them again. I'm gonna let my mind wander for a while but I'm gonna be right back, I love you

Okay, it's 3 am. I'm listening to none of this was your fault again. This album is somehow only getting more replay value for me. You told me none of this was my fault. None of this was your fault either. We are in this together so if I'm not at fault for anything then neither are you in my book. I just want that to be clear because I can't have you feeling like this was all some mistake. That being said I think I've been a little too introspective today and I want to think/talk about some good things for a change, I say as the saddest song on the album plays 🥹 anyways....

Oh, my Abby baby. How everything changes and nothing changes at all at the same time. I just remember handing you that letter in the hallway. I had tears in my eyes as I was. It was just such a big step for me at what I would call the worst time of my life. So much has changed. With life, with the world, with us. But at the same time nothing changes at all. I'm up at 3 am typing you this note. I have been on the verge of tears numerous times in the making of this. We're still both those little kids. It's beautiful to me. You've given me more than I ever could've imagined I would get with you my baby. No matter what happens or how you spin it I have been blessed beyond belief to have you in my life. I just miss you so bad but I have to get used to that possible reality of missing you forever which is just such a tough concept to grasp. I'm gonna go ahead and make it even worse. I just miss your beautiful blue eyes. I just want to stare into them forever without a care in the world. I want to be close enough to you to feel your face and soft skin as I touch your gorgeous hair. I want to hold you and make us feel okay. I want to get close to you and I want to fall asleep in your arms. I want the earth to spontaneously explode and I want to die in your arms. I want to be eternally yours in your arms. Oh baby, what a pleasure that would be. Just let me rest, I'm so restless without you. The uncertainty of you. The idea of life with or without you. Not knowing what side the coin is going to land on. I need to rest in your arms. I need to dream that I'm resting in your arms tonight. You've made me remember my dreams before. Why can't it happen again. Why can't it just be real

Okay I should wind down again 😭 I miss you badly. Just need patience, I have so much of it so we're going to be okay, don't worry. I'm coming home baby. Im going to go to sleep now honey. I hope you've been asleep for a few hours by now. If not, well I can't really do anything but yeah I'd be sad. Anyways, I love you so very much my Abby baby 💜💜💜

81. You feel like home - I'm going to be honest, my house feels less like my house. Maybe it's because I'm leaving but I honestly can say that I felt more at home with you than just being alone in my room
82. I will never truly let you go - you will always be thought of and have a great big piece of my heart no matter what happens and I love that you and your qualities have made me love you like this
83. You're simply adorable - I can just feel the happy chemicals in my brain go off whenever I see you. That's why I just look at your pictures sometimes
84. You make me feel at peace - when im with you everything goes away. Except for the fear of losing you which isn't even a fear anymore, it's just reality. But nonetheless, I want you to know that when you were singing the only exception in my ear and I had my eyes closed while we were dancing. I had never felt more at peace in my life

Wow it's already almost midnight. What a busy long day I'm gonna tell you all about it. Right after I finish your list :)

85. My family likes you - they want to see me happy and I of course am happiest with you. They see the same nice qualities that I see
86. I'm crazy for you - you get the memo by now but I wouldn't type this for anyone else but you even after all we've been thru. I feel so strongly about you to the point where it's driving me mad and you're all I can think/care about
87. Your cute face you make with your bottom lip - it's so you and such a perfect representation of how I feel every time I see your gorgeous face
88. Your so called insecurities and imperfections - I love you more because of them because it brings me a challenge to try and make you see what I see with them because I think they make you even more attractive, I just wish you only understood
89. Your natural beauty - you don't need any makeup at all to be absolutely breathtaking
90. We waited so long for each other - so I should love you harder and harder for the time we lost
91. You love me even when your hands are tied - this is why I'm not really upset and not upset with you at all. Your circumstances are very challenging from what I understand and I know you would fight for me if they weren't. I feel your love from afar and it's all I need right now

August 9th - Happy new year baby ✨

Soooo did not get 20 today because I was on the go all day but I'm about to finish the list for you tonight and then I will tell you all about the busy day I had after I shower. I hope you're well as always, my love

92. You brought back the gleam in my eyes - it's been missing since you've been gone but you brought it back. I haven't seen it in years because I never smiled very much
93. You're very loyal to your stuffed animal bun bun - as I am to my koala, I still think about how sad you must've been when you lost her
94. You went out of your way to see me even if it didn't go well - I know what you had to battle after the fact but you still did everything in your power to see me and that means a lot to me that you would do that
95. You put my memory to the test - I need to remember all the important things about us. So I do and even some unimportant things along the way. I remember what clothes I was wearing after every time I saw you for example
96. We haven't argued - I know this is a little scary but with everything we have had to go thru I am certain that 99% of couples would've had a giant argument by now with everything we've gone thru and we have not had that so that is very special to me because I can't handle that and I never want to have to
97. You love children - you do so many leadership activities that involve children and your biggest goal in life is to be a mother. This is a very attractive trait and it's very wholesome to me
98. You used your phone calls at camp on me - this meant so much to me and it's the most romantic thing anyone has ever done for me. It felt so good to hear your voice again and hear you say I love you over the phone
99. You stay up late with me - Yknow I always see those reels that say "being tired the next day after staying up late with you will always be worth it." I couldn't agree more and I'm glad we both feel the same way because we enjoy each others company
100. You are everything to me my Abby baby - not a minute has passed by in the past 5 months where I haven't thought about you it seems. I do almost all of what I do because of you. You're truly my inspiration and I hope you know that I appreciate you no matter what and that you will always be loved by me. I love you

Whew, that took a while. But I think I got the best 100 things just for you. Whenever you feel down, just take a look at all of those beautiful things about yourself and remember how amazing you truly are

Now I'm going to tell you about my chaotic day

My dad overslept so we were late to the garage sales but I still got some cool vinyls. Then we drove to get Joe and Colin because I decided to bring them because I bought 4 tickets. We make the hour and a half long drive and I get to meet the drivers and get pictures with them. The show is great and it would've all been greater with you by my side but that's beside the point. It gets pretty wild after the show ends. So we leave and as soon as we get out of the parking lot there is a road rage incident going on behind us between a car and a big van and they're on both sides of the road swerving at each other and flipping each other off for 2 miles. Then that got over with and we drop off Colin successfully and then we're on our way to drop off joe. We're approaching the stop sign across from the Wesco gas station. I had just put a new song on my note for you so I was on my phone. But I hear skidding and then loud crash and I look up and there are 2 cars wrecking right in front of the truck and sliding towards us. Luckily the vehicles stopped mere inches from the truck and so we were just gonna drop Joe off and go home because his house was literally right there. The guy who caused the accident then proceeded to park the car at wesco, ran away from the scene and ran into a house two doors down from joes. My dad then parked at joes and called the cops on him for committing a literal hit and run. This guy then walks out of the house with a girl and walks her over to the gas station and she tries to say she was driving when it happened which leads me to believe the guy was drunk or on drugs. He walks back toward my dad and my dad says to him "you need to go back over there, you're committing a hit and run" while on the phone with 911 and this dude starts to get aggressive and starts calling my dad all sorts of names including the n word and tries to say he wasn't driving when we clearly saw he was 🤔 he then proceeds to run inside his house and so then we go across the street to the gas station and part ways with Joe. He is okay don't worry. We go across the street and explain to everyone there what happened and then to the cops when they got there. I went inside the gas station and got a snickers bar and demolished it in front of everyone and they all knew I knew everything so it was aura. Anyways, the cops all went from the gas station to the guys house and I heard from Joe that he also did not have a license. It'll be interesting when my dad sees the arrest sheet on Monday. Moral of the story, yeah we stay doing the right thing. What a crazy night. I had fun, I just miss you and I think that's kinda taking over the fun if you know what I mean. Anyways, that's enough about my day for now. I'm gonna relax for a little bit and I'll be right back to say goodnight to you. You're getting closer and closer to reading all this. I'm just excited to show you that you are very much loved, that's all I care about. That's the main purpose of all of this

It is very much 4 in the morning but I just want you to know that I love you so much my dear. I'm gonna drift off now but I will be thinking of you because I'm always thinking of you. I want you here but you can't be so I hope you force your way into my dreams. I can't wait for you to see all of this my baby. I've tried really hard on all this and I just hope you appreciate it at the very least. I just hope you know that everything I say is the whole truth and that I really do still think you're the greatest thing to ever happen to me and a big pleasure to have in my life because I feel the empty void that is left without you here. Enough of that, I'm gonna miss you more than I already do. I hope you're sleeping well as always with bun bun by your side. I love you so much my Abby baby, goodnight to you 💜💜💜

Hey baby, it's afternoon but I just want to say I miss you. It felt good to actually communicate with you on the note and call you baby and tell you I missed you earlier. I just want you to know that's the best I've felt in weeks. I'm watching the race right now and I'm gonna go for a swim after but I'll be back later because I want to type up some more love for you. I'll be back soon and I love you very much

My mom just told me she wanted to show me something and she pulled up the madison website and it was a picture of you at graduation and I was very confused and said "what." She said "you haven't heard from her?" and I said "no" which is only half true at this point but I can't lie I got really sad and I thought I might cry so I just ran upstairs. I miss you really bad. We all do

Well today I was supposed to go to a music festival in Dearborn to see chance the rapper with Stella but that didn't happen because of the rain. Today was kind of a bummer. It was so cloudy and I feel like it reflected my mood. I know you'll be reading this soon but I can't help but feel sad without you right now. Maybe it's the weather, maybe it was what my mom had showed me, maybe I just flat out miss you. But as the day winds down I can't help but think of you over and over again no matter what. I miss you baby

Technically you will read this tomorrow. It's so far away and it's so unbearable right now. I'm so scared and nervous but I need to tell you everything. You need to know how I feel and that I will do whatever you need me to do

It is 4 am once again. I just really miss you I don't know what else to say anymore. I think I've touched on everything I've wanted to and there's some more things I'll get to if you even read it and want to talk to me which is a whole other can of worms we'll open tomorrow I suppose. I spent the last 4 hours listening to your music just pondering everything. I touched on this earlier but even though I am upset and missing you very badly I am so lucky to have somebody like you to miss. It's a huge privilege to me because some people never find that person that they miss so bad it actually hurts. I think today was the worst day in terms of missing you. Just because you're so close and I want you to see everything I say. Or maybe it was because my mom randomly decided to shoot me in the heart after dinner 😭 either way, today was rough. Today (the tenth) I expect to be also rough. I'm just gonna put the finishing touches on this entire "letter." gosh I wish I could actually write you a letter. Anyways I'm gonna add my final touches and close with a few things and it'll be all ready for you on the eleventh baby. I'm feeling every emotion known to mankind right now so I think that's my queue to sleep. I'll miss typing to you though 😊

I love you very much my sweet little Abby baby. I hope you had an amazing day and that the sun shines once again tomorrow to try and make the sky compete with your beauty, though we both know it never will. I also hope you've been sleeping well and treating yourself well. I hope you've been nice to yourself, because you deserve kindness. Even from yourself. I love you very much my angel. Farewell (for now) and goodnight 💜💜💜

We're basically full on communicating over notes now 😭 you're probably expecting this actually. You're very smart and I feel very predictable right now so I guess we'll see. I don't know what more I have to say right now so I guess I should just wait patiently for you. I'll wait patiently forever just for you if I must. You're my baby. My baby, I miss you my baby

I thought of something

I have tried so hard to not watch anything you've recommended to me because that's just like another form of being attached to you. Tonight after my races I'm gonna watch Star Wars. I can't take it anymore I just have to

Oh you're gonna call me

My surprise is being outdone

Darn you

WE ACTUALLY WON ONE

My first win in that league since the day before Chicago 😭 funny how that works. I'm very happy right now because those wins are very hard to come by in that league. I only have 10 all-time and I've been racing in that league for almost 4 years. Very happy about that and you're going to talk to me tomorrow :) what a day. I'm gonna go watch attack of the clones now but I'll go to bed early and set an alarm because I don't know when you'll call me. I'll be back after the movie but I hope you know I love you and that you're still surprised when you see all of this tomorrow

Of course I pick the longest one. Gonna be a late night and I'm gonna sound so tired on the phone 😭 it's okay

I was originally going to send this at 11:11 pm because it is closer to when we became official about a month ago but there's a few complications with that. I want to send this before your phone call to assure you that I am okay and not upset and show you how I feel and I'm not sure you'll be awake at 11:11 pm tomorrow and it would mean more if you saw all this on our day, that's part of why I initially planned all of this

I suppose that means I should wrap this up as I wind down. It is 1 am on August 11th. About a month ago you became mine and I became yours. I think that was the best day of my life I just didn't know it yet. It's been 24 long days and 25 painful nights without seeing you. 3 long weeks where I couldn't call you mine. There's so much uncertainty still and so much for us to be unsure of. But there is one thing that I need you to know I am sure of. I still love you. I'll never stop if you let me. I'll be there for you always if you choose me. Just let me know how you want me, if you do. I know I want you and that's all that matters to me. You and me, whatever we want, will go. I will make sure of it. That's all I have left to say

I'm going to sleep now, babygirl. I can't wait for you to read this. I can't wait to hear your beautiful soft voice again. I'm so frightened and it feels amazing because I'm in love

Goodnight to you my Abby baby

I love you
